Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 10th June 1950

S.R.O. 61.—The following bye-laws for regulating the letting out or occupation of bungalows and attached out-houses in Barrackpore Cantonment framed by the Cantonment Board, Barrackpore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (28) of Section 282 and Section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-Section (1) of Section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. No bungalow in the Cantonment shall be let out or occupied by more than two families without the written permission of the Executive Officer.

2. Out-houses attached to a bungalow in the Cantonment shall be occupied only by bona fide servants not exceeding six in number of the occupants of the bungalow. This number may however be increased by the Executive Officer in special circumstances.

3. Not more than one chowkidar with his wife and children shall ordinarily be allowed to live in the compound of an unoccupied bungalow. In special circumstances the Executive Officer may allow a second chowkidar and a muli.

4. Not more than one head of cattle in a bungalow shall be kept and no cattle shall be allowed in an unoccupied bungalow without the written permission of the Executive Officer.

5. A breach of any of the above bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
